PROBLEMS OF BLOCKCHAIN TODAY

- Fragmented Ecosystem: Current blockchain platforms are fragmented, lacking seamless connectivity between financial, entertainment, and asset management applications.
- Security and Privacy: Security and privacy remain major challenges, as transactions and activities on the blockchain are easily traceable.
- Access Barriers and Complexity: Many new users struggle to access blockchain technology due to its complexity and high technical knowledge requirements.

Solution

AI - THE NEXT TREND IN BLOCKCHAIN

Market Insight

The global AI market in the blockchain sector is projected to grow from USD 1.5 billion in 2024 to USD 4.8 billion by 2028, at a CAGR of 25.5% (Source: MarketsandMarkets).
